The Study

2011 - 2012

3233 The Boulevard
Westmount, Québec

Dear Students and Staff,

We are happy to say that the 2011-2012 Study Yearbook is done! Despite the stress of chasing people for their photos and write-ups and making strict deadlines, it was an amazing experience! It was so much fun designing the pages, especially since this is the first Study yearbook that is completely in colour. Also, it didn't hurt to be able to choose the photos that went in the yearbook because we could make sure that we looked good in them! We would like to thank the Yearbook Committee for creating great pages, even when they were submitted multiple weeks late. A special thank you to Mrs. Papini for all of her help and guidance throughout this process. Finally, thank you to all the staff and students who sent us photos of different events. We hope next year's yearbook editors have as amazing of a time as we did creating this book of memories that all of you will treasure forever.

Yours truly,

Stephanie Pelletier-Goulet & Georgia Takacsy

We shall not cease from exploration, and the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time.

T. S. Eliot

It is indeed an honour for me to have the opportunity to wish you well as you move on in your life's journey. In a way, we are at opposite ends of our experiences at The Study. While your journey as a student at The Study is coming to an end, mine is at the very beginning. You have had the benefit of many years of learning at a school that celebrates your passion for learning, your love of community that celebrates your passion for learning, your love of community service and global collaboration and your desire to reach out to the greater society with purpose, with leadership, and with vision.

My “fresh eyes” and years of experience tell me that you have had the quintessential opportunity to achieve all that you have aspired to at The Study. You may not actually realize that as a truth until you have explored the next phase of your life-long journey as a learner, but when you next alight on this beautiful school on the hill, you will know, perhaps for the first time, that your roots were nurtured and steadfastly cared for at The Study. This has allowed you to grow, with confidence and sense of purpose.

I am very proud of each and every one of you. As an “Old Girl”, your connection to The Study will be ever-present, and of great value. My fondest wish is that you will return to us, frequently, to share your life-long learning experiences with our evolving “great women”.

My best wishes,

Nancy Lewis Sweer
Head of School

Deputy Head

The 2011-2012 school year's theme "Step Up – Rise to the Challenge" was perfect for our school. Study girls always step up to the challenge – academically, in co-curricular activities and with regard to community service, among many other things. Students rise to the challenge daily, completing academic tasks and co-curricular activities with seriousness and devotion. They rise up to the spirit challenge as well, at House activities, dress-up days and special events. Helping others is another area where Study girls always shine and 'step up'.

The grads of 2012 can be proud as they move forward into their post-secondary studies, knowing that The Study has given them opportunities to "step up" in so many areas, and the skills they have acquired while doing this will help them tremendously in the future.

Bravo to all Study girls who rose to challenges this year. To our grads, may your experience at The Study help guide you in the future and please continue to "Step Up – Rise to the Challenge"!

Anik Low

Senior School Director

This yearbook offers you the unique opportunity to relive the various unforgettable moments of 2011-2012. From athletics banners to international co-curricular competitions to demanding academics – you have seen it all!

As a new member of The Study family, it didn't take me long to realize what an exceptional school this is. The Study's long-standing traditions are what draw initiates like me into the whirlwind of activities that are realized thanks to your exceptional leadership and spirit.

Aux finissantes de 2012, je vous souhaite succès et bonheur. Que tous vos rêves se réalisent et que votre parcours vous amène aux quatre coins du monde. Au plaisir de vous revoir!

Sylvie Lafleur

Elementary School Director

Another fantastic school year is coming to an end. I can think of so many events that will make this year a special one.

Une année riche de toutes sortes de façons: de travail, de connaissances, de rencontres, d'émotions. J'ai appris à vous connaître et à vous apprécier. Vous m'avez impressionnée par tout ce que vous avez accompli. C'est formidable de vous suivre au jour le jour.

Votre implication dans la vie de l'école et votre soif d'apprendre sont contagieuses. Votre participation à divers projets a démontré votre fierté de partager vos connaissances. Conservez votre franc parler et votre ouverture d'esprit. Vous m'avez fait rire et vous m'avez émue. Vous m'avez certainement fait réfléchir et grandir.

To our returning students, I wish you the best summer ever. To the girls who are leaving us this year, I wish you the best of luck in all your future endeavors.

Head Girl : Audrey Leduc

Being elected Head Girl at The Study was undoubtedly the highlight of my year. Ever since kindergarten, I've wanted to be the one to proudly represent our school and it truly was my pleasure to take on that role. I enjoyed getting to know all of you much better and working with this year's Student Council. Together, we formed such a great team and I will keep good memories from our weekly meetings with Ms. Lewis. I would like to thank everyone at the school for believing in me and for allowing me the honor to be The Study's 2011-2012 Head Girl. Congratulations to Valerie; I am sure that you will do a great job next year!

Sub-Head Girl : Sabrina Roy

I can't believe this year has already come to an end. I would be lying if I said I was not going to miss our lunch meetings every Monday. Serving as Sub Head of the Student Council has been such a gratifying experience for me. Ms. Lewis, thanks for putting up with me. To the other members, I could not have asked for better people to work with. Our goal was to make this year the funnest and I think it's safe to say that goal was achieved. Love you girls!

Sports Captain : Emilie Palisaitis

Life after The Study will be so different. No more try-outs to announce, I will not have kindergarteners screaming my name and hugging me from all sides, I will not be able to come up in front of the whole school and say "Hi everyone" and get a "Hi Emilie" back, like I do every Monday morning, and I will not have people like Mama Bear Mrs. Traylen looking out for me and the athletes so closely. Thank you Study girls for electing me as your 2011-2012 Sports Captain. I can truthfully say that it has been an honor. To Steph, I wish you the best of luck, you are going to have a fantastic year.

Entertainment Prefect : Francesca Masella

The first time you saw me this year was in a clip of me dancing with speakers on my shoulders. I knew from that moment that I had to be committed to my position of Entertainment Prefect for the 2011-2012 school year. From planning the grade 7/8 dance to organizing cotillion, I could not have done it without the help of the girls on the Student Council and the support from Ms. Lewis. Although I can't say that every event was planned months before they happened, I am extremely proud of how every event played out. I truly hope that I have entertained you all even just a bit this year. To next year's Student Council, I know you will do amazing things! Good luck!

Elementary School Prefect : Paige Melkerson

Acting as Elementary School Prefect was an unforgettable experience. To the person who follows in my footsteps, don't take the experience for granted, seize every moment as if it were your last because time goes by faster than you could ever imagine. I would like to thank all those who supported me in my role as Elementary School Prefect.

Secretary : Samantha Backman

It is amazing how fast Grade 11 has flown by. Last June, the seven of us were elected to Student Council, I blinked, and now we are walking through the doors of The Study for the last time. Being Secretary on the Student Council has been an incredible experience. It has sharpened my organization skills and taught me the importance of always having a plan for the coming days. Working with the members of the Student Council has been phenomenal. Throughout the year, we shared ideas and supported one another through and through. Audrey, Sabrina, Emilie, Francesca, Jessica, and Paige – it has been a pleasure to share my Monday lunch hours with you. You are driven girls flowing with superb ideas. Thank you to Ms. Lewis for always keeping us on track. To Olivia and next year's Student Council, I wish you the best of luck. Have a great year!

Treasurer : Jessica Thevenoz

When I first started at Student Council Treasurer, I have to admit, I had no idea what I was getting myself into. I didn't even really know what my role on Student Council was, but throughout the year I've learned so much. Whether it was counting the abnormally large amounts of change, or organizing all the school events, I had so much fun! Being on the Student Council with Audrey, Sam, Sab, Fran, Paige and Em has been amazing. I could never have thought of a better team. Thank you Ms. Lewis for all the guidance and support throughout the year. Thank you all for the amazing memories, especially at Monday morning meetings.

Good luck next year Amanda, I'm sure you'll do an amazing job!

Committees

Girls For the Cure Head : Malika Karasek-Bereza

On September 22nd, we united as a school and as women and walked together to the top of Mount Royal to raise awareness for women-related cancers. With everyone's spirit and enthusiasm, we were able to help make a difference in the lives of women struggling with cancer by giving them support and hope. We had the chance to listen to some courageous women talk about their battles against cancer and to reflect upon how lucky we are to be healthy young women. As Girls for the Cure Head, I was touched by how passionate all the girls were. I'd like to thank Carley Sambrook and Stephanie Claxton, my committee members, as well as Ms. Lewis for their dedication and hard work.

Bazaar Co-Chairs : Amanda Kost and Camille Gagnon

Last May, when Amanda Kost and I considered the many Grade 11 leadership positions that were available to us, we chose to be the co-chairs of the Annual Bazaar. We came up with the Mickey Mouse Club theme that proved to be a huge success. It was a lot of hard work and the best real-life experience. After all our dedication and efforts, we were able to donate over $6000.00 to Chez Doris, a shelter for women in need. Reaching out to the entire community helped us achieve our goals. A special thanks to Ms. Lewis.

Art Head : Caroline Najjar

I had an incredible time being Art Head this year and I cannot imagine a leadership position I would enjoy more. Directing the grade 7&8 play, making announcements at assembly, and making banners for various events are some of the things I had the pleasure to do this year. I am passionate about art and think it is important to show the creativity of the students because the quality of their work is absolutely stunning. Thank you so much to Ms. Van Frank, whose love for art was manifested in her dedication and efforts to promote art in the school. She has taught us countless skills that will help us learn this compelling, intricate, and profound craft.

Tuck Head: Charlie Carrier-Groleau

Firstly, I would like to thank the High School student body for making Tuck a huge success. You ate us out of house and home!
A special thank-you to Ms. Lewis and the parents for their continuous support.
Good luck to next year's Tuck Head!

Community Service Head: Judy Fung

When people ask me what I like about doing community service, I tell them that I simply love to give, whether it be a hand, my skills, or my time. The satisfaction that I get after helping others fills me with great joy. Knowing that I helped someone make their day better always brings a smile to my face. Volunteering demands a lot of patience, compassion, and love to give. It can be done within your community, your country, or any place in the world, and it can be fun and challenging. It can test your limits and your interests, but as the saying goes, "It's better to give than to receive."

Grad Head: Camille Gagnon

From decorations and flowers to seating arrangements and menus, though stressful at times, Grad was a success and so exciting to plan. Thank you Ms. Low and Ms. Lewis and all the parents for their support.
It was an honour to be elected to plan one of the most anticipated events in our high school years.
I hope the graduates will never forget the Grad of 2012.

Alumnae Prefect: Carley Sambrook

As I write this now, I am a grade 11 student. But when I actually read this in the yearbook, the Class of 2012 and I will be the newest members of the Study Old Girls Association. That is not a day we thought would come so fast, but after our wonderful years at The Study I think it's safe to say that we are all proud to call ourselves Study Old Girls. I've had the pleasure of working with the reinvigorated SOGA this year, and I look forward to coming back in the future to reconnect with my friends and help us all keep in touch with what is happening at The Study. The Class of 2012 is an amazing group of girls, and I can't wait to see where life takes us.

KAPPA RHO

Dear Kappa Rho,

It has been an exciting year, to say the least. From house meets to House Day, or even our tournaments such as the basketball shoot-off and beach day, you never failed to impress me with your spirit. Sports Day was another wonderful experience as House Head. We may be the smallest of the houses, but we are the mightiest, and we don't need a title to prove it. I hope next year is as great, maybe even better for your new House Head, Angelica.

A special thank you to Ms. Traylen, without whom none of these memories would have existed. You have made it an easy task to be on the force this year and you have worked hard to make all the events a huge success. Good luck to next year's house officials! May the force be with you!

Sincerely,

Audrey Kano (Head)

Clair Hadaya (Sub-Head)

Angelica Pietrovito (Sports Captain)

DELTA BETA

Delta Betans,

it is time to reflect on what made our house so amazing in the 2011-2012 school year. Our spirit was outstanding! This showed in the number of cheers done in a meeting, the wave of sixth graders coated in face and body paint, not to mention how every member gave so much effort when participating in the house activities this year. Thank you to the Mini-Force as well as Jo, Amanda, Jordana, and Chloe for showing such enthusiastic leadership, you girls truly motivated us and were the spirit of the house. Congrats girls, for winning the Beach Day volleyball tournament this year. That golden volleyball looks much better with our name on it yet again. Thank you to our students from kindergarten to grade 11 for making Delta Beta the best house in the school and for making this year such a memorable one. GO DELTA BETA!

Yours truly,

Stephanie Claxton (Head)

Amanda Kost and Jordana Serero (Sub-Heads)

Josephine Issenman (Sports Captain)

MU GAMMA

Dear Mu Gamma,

This year has been an absolutely amazing year for us! We had a strong start with a successful Scavenger Hunt, took home first place with the Basketball Shoot-Off, and were the winners of House Hustle! From making new cheers to wearing crazy blue accessories on House Day, you have all contributed to making this House the best it can be. We are so proud and honoured to be your leaders. Keep your tremendous spirit and enthusiasm and prove to everybody that there is no House better than ours! We love you all so much and we will miss you terribly next year. Good luck to next year's Force - we know that you will do an excellent job in leading this extraordinary House. Go Mu Gamma!

Love,

Jessica Lu (Head)

Stephanie Pelletier-Goulet (Sub-Head)

Sara Ordenselli (Sports Captain)

BETA LAMBDA

Dear Members of Beta Lambda,

Being a member of the force has been a thrilling opportunity for us all. We were honoured to organize exciting events for the most spirited group of students at The Study, the "Beta Lambdians". During every house related activity, Basketball Shootout, Beach Volleyball, House Hustle, Carolling, amongst others, we, the "Beta Lambdians" stand out. We put exceptional effort into everything we do. Whether we win or lose, we maintain a positive attitude and that is what makes us so special. This year, we have had some very spirited and enjoyable house meetings and have learned some great new cheers. Beta Lambda has always been, is still, and will always be the most spirited and most distinguished house. In closing, we would like to thank you, the "Beta Lambdians" and Mrs. Traylen for making this year such a remarkable one for us all. Best of luck to next year's house officials: Alexandra Dupont, Emily Brady, Yeseul Jun, and Hannah Sousa-Fronenberg.

Sincerely,

2500 steps. I am sure that no one would walk such a distance unless the destination was a very special place. Over the last twelve years, The Study has been my safe harbor and I have walked 2500 steps uphill every morning to reach it. My time at the school has been memorable. From building block towers in Kindergarten to Grade 11 Math, I will carry with me the skills I have learned here for the rest of my life. I have forged wonderful friendships that I know will withstand the test of time. To everyone who has made my years at the school remarkable, I thank you from the bottom of my heart. To the graduating class of 2012, you are 27 phenomenal young women to whom I send my love and very best wishes. Thank you for having been by my side every step of the way.

Sarah Battat

Time flies by so quickly. Only yesterday, was I a kindergarten student. While many things have changed, I seem to be perpetually stunted at 4 feet, 11.75 inches. In all seriousness, The Study has been my second home for twelve years. It is here that I have met some of my lifelong friends, learned from some of the most passionate teachers, and participated in some of the most interesting extra-curricular activities. Henry David Thoreau expressed what I believe is the most valuable piece of knowledge that The Study has taught me: "I have learned, that if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours." Congratulations to the Class of 2012, good luck in all your future endeavors, and thank you to those who have made this journey memorable and rewarding.

Charlie Carrier-Groleau

Twelve years seems like an eternity, but my years at The Study have gone by so quickly. All of my best memories are at this school, with the many great friends I have made. To my sisters, PM JT CG JS CE FM SR AK CH I'll never forget the moments when we laughed until we cried, brought so much cake to school we almost died, and all the other times we stood by each other because we had failed a test. I will always smile when thinking of our many crazy experiences. Wherever we end up, know that you will all forever be in my heart. I am honored to graduate amongst you and I will miss you all greatly.

Love Always, Char

Sing like no one's listening, love like you've never been hurt, dance like nobody's watching, and live like its heaven on earth. Mark Twain

Stephanie Claxton

I've been here nine years but I have never been bored because you are always happy if you are with people you love. The Study has become another family for me; my friends were always with me and my teachers guided me along the way. From Nicaragua to Cabane à Sucre, every experience I've had while at The Study will last me a lifetime. "Imperfection is beauty, madness is genius and it's better to be absolutely ridiculous than absolutely boring." – Marilyn Monroe.

Honestly, I don't think there is a better way to describe my insane friends and our crazy adventures here. Though I will miss the big house on top of the hill and my Blond Crew, the time has come for us to become the great women we are meant to be. Thank you to everyone for helping me get there.

Chloe Espiard

I can't believe my twelve years at The Study are already coming to an end! It feels like just yesterday I was in kindergarten looking up at the grade elevens sitting on the benches at assembly, and now I am one of them; how time flies! Mom, Dad, Dan, Hadrien, thank you for your constant support and guidance, I couldn't have done it without you! I also want to thank my classmates and teachers for making my experience at The Study truly unforgettable. We have all formed such a strong bond, a bond only Study girls have. As this chapter of my life comes to an end, I look forward to what the future will bring me. Love, Chloé

"Do not follow where the path may lead. Go, instead, where there is no path and leave a trail." ~Ralph Waldo Emerson

Judy Fung

Ask me to write about my passion and I'll pour my heart out. Ask me to write about Nicaragua and I'll fill pages and pages. Ask me to write about my time spent at The Study and my mind goes blank. How do you describe 12 out of your 17 years of life in one paragraph? I could write about the times when I thought adding fractions in grade 4 was hard, but changed my mind when probability was introduced three years later. Or I could simply talk about how high school became more of an adventure as I searched for my identity. However, one thing I must mention: I want to thank all the wonderful people I met and became friends with, and my family. Without them, I would have not become the person I am today. Congratulations to the Class of 2012. Wishing you love and all the best!

Camille Gagnon

Although I've only been at The Study for three years, it feels like I'm leaving a family behind. I know that the experience I've gained has already prepared me for whatever is coming my way. The lessons learned, the shared laughs, and the many friendships, will stay with me for the rest of my life. My partners in crime (JT PM CG JS CE MH AK MM) I love you all. Thank you to my amazing family who has always been there by my side. Grads of 2012, the amazing memories will forever be in my heart and I wish you all the best of good luck! This might be the end of an important chapter but it's the only the beginning. Congratulations, we made it!

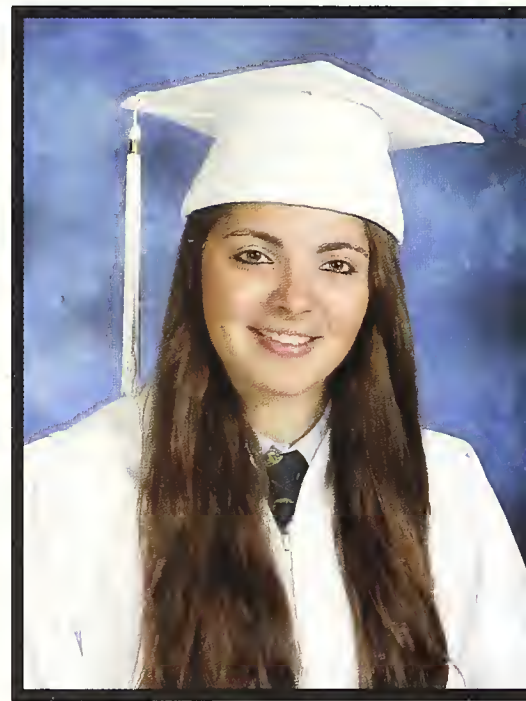

Love always,
Cam

Claire Hadaya

It's hard to believe it's actually our turn to write a graduation biography. To my family, thank you for your love and support throughout everything. You're the best! To the Class of 2012, the "special" grade, you've made these three years at The Study everything but boring. I can't really reduce all of you girls into a 150-word grad write-up, but I'll try by saying that I am so proud to be a part of this graduating class. CA, CCG, PM, FM, SR, AK, CE, JS, MM and AK - the amazing girls who have made this experience just a little easier, I'll miss you so much. Class of 2012, I think it's safe to say that if we can make it through all-girls school, we can do anything. I wish all of you good luck on your future endeavors; it's been amazing.

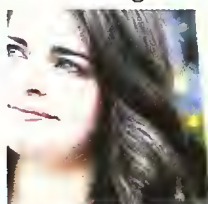

Love always, Claire

Margot Hadaya

My first two years at this school passed by so slowly, and now in my last year, I feel like someone has pushed the fast-forward button. I cannot believe I am finally going to graduate High School and become one step closer to experiencing the "real world"! I am so grateful and appreciative to have been blessed with such amazing opportunities in my life - in the Study community and outside of it. To my parents, thank you so much for always supporting me no matter what I've done! Thank you as well as for patiently dealing with me when stress got the better of me... To the graduating class of 2012 (A.K.A., the "special grade"...), thank you for some really amazing memories - I definitely will not forget you guys! I wish you all the best of luck with your future endeavors! And remember, "carpe diem" ('seize the day').

Love, Margot, Margz, Mar, Hadaya Senior, Margit, Marogimarogo, Margarita<3

Audrey Kano

Has 12 years at The Study finally come to an end? Although I am about to leave the doors of the school I first entered in 2000, there are an infinite number of memories that will never leave me. There are so many people to thank for the unforgettable experience, but I will start with those who gave me the opportunity to experience this journey. Mom, Dad, I cannot thank you enough for your wisdom and your teachings. Secondly, to all the teachers who have mentored, inspired and supported me throughout the years. Finally to my friends: SR, JT, CCG, FM, JS and CH. You girls shared with me the most amazing laughs and cherished memories. Of course, I cannot forget my brother Joe: my inspiration, my friend and the base to my foundation.

"All the world is a laboratory to the inquiring mind." - Martin H. Fischer

Malika Karasek-Bereza

Eleven years squeezed into a few sentences – impossible! It's been eleven years of laughter, eleven years of close friendships, eleven years of growth and learning. I can't remember my life before The Study and, now, I'm having a hard time imagining my life without it. Yes, I've have had my downs, but, in the end, it's all the good times that stand out in my mind. To the girls I've spent the better part of my life with: I love you more than words can say and wish you the best!

Amanda Kost

My six years at The Study have been remarkable. It's hard to believe that my time here is coming to an end. The incredible group of girls that I have met here will be for life, and without all of you, I don't think that my experience at The Study would have been the same. Not only have I made friendships but I have also gained many wonderful memories that I will cherish for a lifetime. Although I have repeated many times that I couldn't wait to graduate and move on, I know for sure I will truly miss this part of my life. Thank you to all my teachers for their continuous support and to my parents who have always encouraged me throughout these six years. To the class of 2012, I love you all and I wish you all the best of luck in the future.

Love Amanda, Mandy, Manders, Manda panda

Audrey Leduc

After 12 years spent at The Study, I can't believe that it is already time for me to leave! This school has truly become my second home and I am thankful for everything that I have been taught over this period of time. With all of this accumulated knowledge, I feel ready to face the upcoming exciting chapter in my life. To the class of 2012: we have been through so much together and I am so grateful to have met all of you. Thank you to everyone who has continuously supported me throughout these past years. A piece of advice: seize every opportunity to add to your life experiences. Comme le dit mon grand-père, « une saine ambition est un ascenseur qui ne s'arrête pas aux étages inférieurs ». Graduates, best of luck in all of your future endeavours!

Love, Audrey xoxo

Jessica Lu

It's hard to imagine that I've spent 12 years of my life at The Study. I still remember crying at the end of the first day of school in kindergarten because my parents were late to pick me up and I was the only student left. After all these years, the little house on the hill has become a second home to me. Thank you to all the faculty and staff who guided me from a little girl to a young women, my friends with whom I shared hours of laughter, and most importantly, my family which has always been there to support me. You have all prepared me for the next chapter of my life and I will forever be grateful.

Michelle Marin

It has been three years since I have been at The Study and I have to say I have met the most exceptional people. Everybody that I have had the opportunity to meet has been amazing. I would like to wish the entire grade elevens the best of luck. You have made these three years one of the best and I love you all. Thank you for everything!

Francesca Masella

Looking back at my first days at The Study in seventh grade, I never would have thought that five years would go by as quickly as they have. To my Sugarhill Gang: You have made my time at The Study the best it could be. I love you all. Thanks to you, half of the funniest moments I have experienced during my time here have occurred between the times of 12:40 and 1:30 in the cafeteria. To Mom, Dad, Ben, and Justin: thank you for all your love and support. Finally, to the class of 2012: I wish you all health, love, success and adventure. I know each and every one of you is going to be amazing at whatever you choose to pursue. And as a final thought remember that "wherever you go, go with all your heart" -Confucius

Love, Franny

Paige Melkerson

To say these past eight years have been meaningful would be an understatement. These hallways hold so many memories, all of which will be hard to leave behind. My time at The Study has definitely had both ups and downs. However, thanks to the grace and compassion of those who surrounded me when times were tough, I have grown into my own person. The people I have met at this school will forever be a part of my life, in some way or another. To my girls, we have been through thick and thin together (most of the time thick), but I wouldn't trade the laughter for anything in the world. To my parents, Jess and Jack, thank you for your constant love and support. To the graduates of 2012, I would not have been able to make it without every single one of you, WE DID IT.

Love always, Paige

Sarah Morgan

Twelve years ago, I chose The Study because I liked the kindergarten environment. Twelve years later, it turns out there was a lot more than the room to enjoy. During the past decade I have, at times, been sleep deprived and stressed but still I have accumulated thousands of memories at this school.

I would like to thank my friends for being there through the good and the bad. I am going to miss all of you, especially my fellow lifers. I would like to thank my teachers for everything they have done. They let me eat in class after running in the morning, they let me Skype into class when I was absent from school, and they allowed me to turn off the lights. Finally, I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to go to such an amazing school for twelve years.

Thank you, Morgan

Caroline Najjar

I cannot believe it has already been twelve years since I first set foot at The Study. My experience has been filled with countless memories of laughter, challenges, and travel, which I will always remember. I am so lucky to have been exposed to a wide variety of academics, competitions, extracurricular activities, and dedicated teachers who have made it their priority to teach us everything we will need for the future. Thank you to my parents who have always been there to support and encourage me throughout all of elementary and high school - I couldn't have done it without you! To the graduating class of 2012, I want to say how much I have enjoyed being a part of such a great group of girls. We shared many laughs and supported each other through tough times, and I will truly miss all of you!

Sabrina Nolan

My twelve-year journey at The Study has been full of memorable moments. I have had incredible opportunities, met remarkable people, and fostered friendships and alliances that I hope to preserve for life. I have been taught by wonderful educators whose passion and dedication for their field has enriched my own learning experience. I have seized every opportunity that has been presented to me, which has allowed me to accomplish some great things during my years here. I am grateful for the first-class education that this institution has provided me. As this journey ends and I embark on yet another as I enter the real world, I feel empowered and confident. For this, I have to thank the entire Study community and my loving and supportive parents.

Emilie Palisaitis

The Study has definitely been the best roller coaster ride of my life. Since the start of my Study life in grade 7, I've had the fortunate opportunity to share some of my most amazing life experiences with you, the Class of 2012. I cannot thank you enough. Mom and Dad, thank you for giving me the help and support throughout the years. Phil, thank you for being the best big brother I could ask for. Thank you teachers and staff who have helped make my experience the best it could be. Finally, to my Blonde Crew (MKB, SC, CS), I love you. "I love you, not for what you are, but for what I am when I am with you." Thank you for shaping me into the person I am today. We've seen laughs and tears, and have stayed together until the end.

Stephanie Pelletier-Goulet

Finally! It is now my turn to write a message in the yearbook! Time has passed by so quickly and, at times, it feels like I am still in grade one. I would like to thank my teachers and classmates for offering me memories that I will cherish forever. Graduation is coming up and can't help myself from counting the days. Why does it have to finish?
Joke for the psychology class: A-BER-CROM-BIE

Sabrina Roy

I cannot believe that this year marks the end of my journey at The Study. It's too bad that all the good times will come to an end, but the bad times of having to walk up Braeside will unfortunately still apply to me... To my Sugarhill Gang – thanks for all being the sisters I never had. Maman and Papa, I love you both to the moon and back a million times and cannot thank you enough for all that you have both done for me. Kamil, even though I might not always show my gratitude, thanks for being the best brother I could ever ask for; without you there would be a void in my heart. Although I truly am going to miss The Study, I am excited to move on to the next chapter of my life. "Life is a wheel of fortune, now it's our turn to spin it." -Tupac Shakur

Carley Sambrook

I was five years old when I first visited The Study. I remember Mme. Jothy asking me if I wanted to come to the school, and I replied that no, I did not want to come because the playground was too small and there were no boys. Well, eleven years later I am very glad that my parents had veto power! I've added 27 sisters to my life and had countless funny and wonderful experiences all thanks to this school. And, of course, I definitely learned a few things along the way.

I want to thank my mom, my dad, Samantha, Hobbes, the rest of my family and all my friends. I could never have done it without you.

"Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the number of moments that take our breath away." – Anonymous

Jordana Serero

After a long five years at The Study, I have few words to share. My time at The Study has been quite the rollercoaster. My journey at The Study ends here, and it's bittersweet. We have all grown to be one big and highly dysfunctional family. It has been a crazy ride. As much as I will miss the comfort of being surrounded by girls I know so well, I look forward to the future that lies ahead of me.

Love, Jor

Ashley Stendel

I can't believe that I am finally graduating. My life as a Study girl has definitely been interesting, but for the few days that I was in the school, I can say that there have been a lot of good memories, friends, and lessons. Even though I have been counting down the days until this moment for a very long time, I will always miss the school at the top of the hill.

Georgia Takacsy

More than 70% of my life has been spent here, at The Study. While I am excited to see what life has in store for me once I leave the 'house on the hill', I will definitely miss coming to this familiar place everyday. I definitely consider The Study a second home. I have made lifelong friends at this school and have so many precious memories that I will never forget: the long walks up Braeside in elementary school, begging Mrs. Lewis for mints in grade 4, the Boston trip in grade 9, going to China for Entrepreneuriat, and so many more. I would like to thank my parents for providing me with such an incredible education, Julia and Nick for being awesome siblings, my teachers for their help and support and, of course, the class of 2012. I'll miss you guys and I wish you all the best of luck! <3

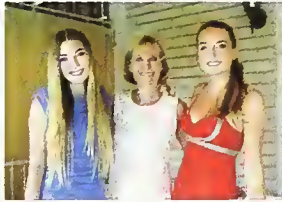

Love, Georgia :)

Jesssica Thevenoz

After twelve years of stress, hard work, anticipation and laughter, it's finally my turn to graduate. I can't believe my time at The Study is over. I'll always remember how we spent our famous lunches dying of laughter, our locker room jam sessions usually spent singing or stuffing people into corners, and our creative yet numerous ways of convincing ourselves that we could not get through another death week. To my Sugerhill gang; CCG, CH, CE, CG, PM, SR, AK, FM, and JS, I love you all so much and I don't know how I would have gotten through everything without you. To my mom, Chloe, and Val, thank you for the endless support and love. To the class of 2012: WE MADE IT! Love you all so much.

The background of the entire page is a complex, abstract pattern. It consists of numerous overlapping circles of various sizes. The areas where the circles overlap are filled with different colors, including shades of red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple, and grey. The circles themselves are mostly white, creating a high-contrast, mosaic-like effect. The overall style is reminiscent of a stained-glass window or a modern, colorful geometric pattern.
